Introduction

The times we live in are noisy and distracting. In the wake of social media , many of us believers, have been swept along by these waves of distraction, which we sometimes find hard to break away from.

The only way out is by the Spirit and the Word of Christ. The call to every Christian is to rise up and study the Word. There has never been a time like this. You may be listening to many Christian podcasts, but I tell you, nothing beats reading, studying, and listening to the Bible for yourself.

We present to you this Bible Study Booklet, designed to help you read and study the Scriptures, which can save your soul and renew your mind.

Just as Paul told Timothy, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth,” and “Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine,” it is time to give yourself to the study of the Word. For the Lord says, “Because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me.” He rejects all ministry not built on the knowledge of His Word.

Come, take your Bible study book, get your colored pencils and pens. It is time to study the living Word of God. If you studied the books of men in school, how much more the Word of God.

I believe the Christ in you will help you become the person He called you to be. Grace, peace, and mercy abound towards you.

Yours in Christ

How to Use This Booklet

This booklet holds the complete text of the letter of Jude in the King James Version, set in paragraphs by subject with short headings to guide you, the way readers' Bibles lay out the page. The verse pages carry the Scripture text, nothing added and nothing taken away. The ruled pages are yours.

Underline. Read over and over until light comes. Use the Bible dictionary. And write, write down your meditations, thoughts, and inspirations.

Read a paragraph slowly, then write what you see: what Jude teaches about contending for the faith, what he warns against, what it asks of you. This letter was written to a church under pressure from deceivers; study it prayerfully, and let it do its work.

How to print: print double-sided and flip on the short edge, so the verses stay on the left-hand pages and your notes on the right in the physical copy. Open the book and every opening shows Scripture on the left and your notes on the right.

It is time to study the Bible; enough of the ignorance.

Jude at a Glance

The brother of James and his one short letter.

- Written by Jude (Judas), the servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James. (Jude 1)
- One of the shortest books of the New Testament: a single chapter of 25 verses.
- Written to them that are sanctified by God the Father and preserved in Jesus Christ. (Jude 1)
- Certain men had crept in unawares, turning the grace of God into lasciviousness. (Jude 4)
- Its charge: to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. (Jude 3)
- Jude warns from Israel in the wilderness, the fallen angels, Sodom and Gomorrha, Cain, Balaam, and Core.
- He quotes the prophecy of Enoch, the seventh from Adam. (Jude 14)
- Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. (Jude 21)

THE LETTER OF JUDE

JUDE 1

Greeting to the called

¹ Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

² Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

Contend for the faith

³ Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. ⁴ For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

My observations

Notes on Jude 1

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. (Jude 1:3)

Three warnings from the past

⁵ I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. ⁶ And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. ⁷ Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

My observations

I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. (Jude 1:5)

The ungodly and their doom

⁸ Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. ⁹ Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. ¹⁰ But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. ¹¹ Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

My observations

Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. (Jude 1:11)

Spots in your feasts of charity

¹² These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; ¹³ Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

Enoch prophesied of these

¹⁴ And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, ¹⁵ To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. ¹⁶ These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

My observations

*These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water,
carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; (Jude 1:12)*

Remember the words of the apostles

¹⁷ But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; ¹⁸ How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. ¹⁹ These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

Keep yourselves in the love of God

²⁰ But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, ²¹ Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. ²² And of some have compassion, making a difference: ²³ And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

My observations

*And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,
(Jude 1:14)*

Glory to our Saviour

²⁴ Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, ²⁵ To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

My observations

But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; (Jude 1:17)

My observations

and power, both now and ever. Amen. (Jude 1:25)*

JUDE

Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, wrote this short, fiery letter to believers who are sanctified, preserved, and called. Certain men had crept in unawares, turning the grace of God into lasciviousness, and Jude exhorts the saints to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto them. He warns by the examples of Israel in the wilderness, the angels that kept not their first estate, and Sodom and Gomorrha, and he closes with one of the grandest doxologies in all of Scripture.

This booklet gives you the complete text of Jude in the King James Version, paragraphed by subject with short headings to guide your reading. Every opening sets Scripture on the left page and your ruled notes on the right, with ten extra notes pages at the end. THE END OF THE ROAD glance at the letter and a guide to using
