A KNOWHOLY CHILDREN'S RESOURCE

KING JAMES VERSION • SAMPLE PACK

HOW TO USE THIS PACK

A note for parents. Every page in this pack carries one verse of Scripture through four stages, so the words move slowly from the eye, to the hand, to the heart. One page a day is enough.

- 1 READ
Read the verse at the top of the page aloud together, twice. Talk about any word your child does not know before picking up a pencil.
- 2 TRACE
Your child traces the gray letters, following the lines: top line, dashed middle line, bottom line. Slow and careful beats fast and finished.
- 3 COPY
Next, your child copies the verse onto the blank lines, looking back at the verse at the top as often as needed.
- 4 WRITE IT FROM MEMORY
Last, cover the top of the page and let your child write the verse from memory. Mistakes are welcome here; they show you what to review tomorrow.

SIMPLE TIPS

- One verse page a day, five days a week, fits a normal school term.
- Say the verse aloud while writing it. Hearing and writing together fix it in memory.
- Use a pencil with a good grip, and praise effort before neatness.
- On the last day of the week, review the verses from memory as a family.

In this sample: Proverbs 1:1–7. The full pack walks through the whole book of Proverbs, one verse per page. Every verse is printed exactly as it stands in the King James Bible, which is public domain.
