Introduction

The times we live in are noisy and distracting. In the wake of social media, many of us believers, have been swept along by these waves of distraction, which we sometimes find hard to break away from.

The only way out is by the Spirit and the Word of Christ. The call to every Christian is to rise up and study the Word. There has never been a time like this. You may be listening to many Christian podcasts, but I tell you, nothing beats reading, studying, and listening to the Bible for yourself.

We present to you this Bible Study Booklet, designed to help you read and study the Scriptures, which can save your soul and renew your mind.

Just as Paul told Timothy, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth,” and “Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine,” it is time to give yourself to the study of the Word. For the Lord says, “Because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me.” He rejects all ministry not built on the knowledge of His Word.

Come, take your Bible study book, get your colored pencils and pens. It is time to study the living Word of God. If you studied the books of men in school, how much more the Word of God.

I believe the Christ in you will help you become the person He called you to be. Grace, peace, and mercy abound towards you.

Yours in Christ

How to Use This Booklet

This booklet holds the complete text of Paul's letter to Titus in the King James Version, set in paragraphs by subject with short headings to guide you, the way readers' Bibles lay out the page. The verse pages carry the Scripture text, nothing added and nothing taken away. The ruled pages are yours.

Underline. Read over and over until light comes. Use the Bible dictionary. And write, write down your meditations, thoughts, and inspirations.

Read a paragraph slowly, then write what you see: what an elder must be, how every age in the church is taught, why good works follow mercy and never earn it. This letter was written to a young worker left on a hard island field; study it prayerfully, and let it do its work.

How to print: print double-sided and flip on the short edge, so the verses stay on the left-hand pages and your notes on the right in the physical copy. Open the book and every opening shows Scripture on the left and your notes on the right.

It is time to study the Bible; enough of the ignorance.

Titus at a Glance

Sound doctrine, and careful in good works.

- Written by the apostle Paul to Titus, about AD 62 to 64, after his first imprisonment at Rome.
- Titus, a Greek believer and Paul's partner, was left in Crete to set in order the things that are wanting. (Titus 1:5)
- Crete had a hard name, liars and slow bellies; the letter answers with sound doctrine and good works. (Titus 1:12)
- Chapter 2 orders every age of the church: aged men, aged women, young women, young men, and servants. (Titus 2:1 to 10)
- Its gospel core is famous: the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. (Titus 2:11)
- And again: not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us. (Titus 3:5)
- Believers are to be careful to maintain good works: the letter returns to this again and again. (Titus 3:8 and 14)
- He signs as he opened: grace be with you all. Amen. (Titus 3:15)

THE LETTER TO TITUS

TITUS 1

Greeting to Titus, my son

¹ Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness; ² In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; ³ But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour; ⁴ To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

My observations

Notes on Titus 1

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; (Titus 1:2)

Set in order the things wanting

⁵ For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee: ⁶ If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly. ⁷ For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; ⁸ But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; ⁹ Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

My observations

For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee: (Titus 1:5)

Many unruly and vain talkers

¹⁰ For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: ¹¹ Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. ¹² One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. ¹³ This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

They profess that they know God

¹⁴ Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. ¹⁵ Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. ¹⁶ They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

My observations

For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; (Titus 1:7)

TITUS 2

Speak the things of sound doctrine

¹ But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: ² That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

³ The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; ⁴ That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵ To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

My observations

Notes on Titus 2

But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: (Titus 2:1)

Young men, servants, and good works

⁶ Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

⁷ In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, ⁸ Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. ⁹ Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again; ¹⁰ Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

My observations

In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, (Titus 2:7)

The grace of God that bringeth salvation

¹¹ For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, ¹² Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; ¹³ Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; ¹⁴ Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. ¹⁵ These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

My observations

Notes on Titus 2 (continued)

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, (Titus 2:11)

TITUS 3

Be subject to principalities and powers

¹ Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, ² To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men. ³ For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

The kindness and love of God our Saviour

⁴ But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, ⁵ Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; ⁶ Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; ⁷ That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

My observations

Notes on Titus 3

To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men. (Titus 3:2)

Maintain good works, avoid foolish questions

⁸ This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men. ⁹ But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. ¹⁰ A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject; ¹¹ Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

My observations

But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, (Titus 3:4)

Final greetings and grace

¹² When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

¹³ Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. ¹⁴ And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful. ¹⁵ All that are with me salute thee.

Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

My observations

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; (Titus 3:5)

TITUS

Paul wrote to Titus, the Greek son in the faith he had left behind in Crete, where the churches were young and the island's name was a byword. The letter is short and strong: appoint elders who hold fast the faithful word, teach every age its duty, and let mercy produce good works everywhere. It is the order book for a church planted in a hard place.

This booklet gives you the complete text of Titus in the King James Version, paragraphed by subject with headings to guide your reading. Every opening sets Scripture on the left page and your ruled notes on the right, with ten extra notes pages at the end.

Illustrated with original symbolic paintings throughout, no portraits or animals.
